

Mga Kontribyutor

Si David Michael M. San Juan ay Full Professor sa Departamento ng Filipino, De La Salle University-Manila (DLSU-Manila), at fellow sa DLSU Southeast Asia Research Center & Hub (SEARCH). Pangulo ng Pambansang Samahan sa Linggwistika at Literaturang Filipino (PSLLF). Itinanghal na Makata ng Taon 2010 at Mananaysay ng Taon 2009 ng Komisyon sa Wikang Filipino (KWF). Kasalukuyang Head ng Pambansang Komite sa Wika at Salin (National Committee on Language and Translation) sa ilalim ng National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA). Regular Member ng Division 1 (Governmental, Educational and International Policies) ng National Research Council of the Philippines (NRCP). Isa sa mga lead convener ng Alyansa ng Mga Tagapagtanggol ng Wikang Filipino (TANGGOL WIKA).

Julius Cainglet is the Vice President for Research, Advocacy and Partnerships of the Federation of Free Workers (FFW), a national trade union based in the Philippines, affiliated to the International Trade Union Confederation (ITUC). He is with the ITUC Trade Union Development Cooperation Network and a member of the steering committee of its Asia Pacific Network. It promotes development cooperation, aid effectiveness and the SDGs. Julius acts as spokesperson, prepares statements, prepares media releases, publishes newsletters; organizes events; and networks with other trade unions, other CSOs, social partners and international organizations.

Julius is focal for workers and trade unions at the Asia Pacific Regional CSO Engagement Mechanism (APRCM). He is Chairperson of the Knowledge Management and Advocacy Sub-committee of the National Child Labor Committee, tasked to help eliminate child labor in the Philippines by 2025. He is former chair of the Philippine Campaign to promote decent work for domestic workers technical working group (Domestic Work TWG). Julius is also a member of the Tripartite Industrial Peace Executive Committee, which acts as clearinghouse of Philippine labor and employment laws, policies and programs including monitoring of violations of ILO core labor standards. A labor educator and international resource person, Julius also sings.

Si U Z. Eliserio ay nagtuturo sa Departamento ng Filipino at Panitikan ng Pilipinas, College of Arts and Letters, UP Diliman. Ilan sa mga pinakabago niyang gawa ang Libreng Pagkain, Libreng Pabahay, Libreng Medisina, Libreng Edukasyon (2023) at Robredoismo: Resulta ng Awtopsiya (2024). Isinalin niya sa Filipino ang mga gawa ni Rousseau, Nietzsche, at Bakunin. Bisitahin siya sa ueliserio.com/books.

Emy Ruth D. Gianan teaches undergraduate classes on public policy, governance, and development economics at the Polytechnic University of the Philippines – Manila, under the Department of Economics. Her research is focused on comparative disinformation challenges in Southeast Asia and its evolving relationship with democracy, public policy, and digital transformation. She also writes at Medium and hosts Extra Notes, a lesson-based podcast available at Spotify and Google Podcasts. For collaborations, you may email her at erdgianan@pup.edu.ph.

The Ecumenical Institute for Labor Education and Research (EILER) is a nonprofit, non-governmental labor organization in the Philippines, formally established in 1981. For more than four decades now, EILER continues to expand its network to new trade unions, independent labor associations, and grassroots organizations. EILER strives to contribute in strengthening the capacity of workers' groups through promoting the dignity of work and freedom of association. Our services include labor research, knowledge sharing, and training of labor educators and union organizers. In the 1980's, the institution led in mass education and course development for workers with its banner course, Genuine Trade Unionism (GTU) Rochelle Porras, Iggy Sandrino, Orly Putong, and Mandy Felicia constitute the research group of EILER, Inc.

Teo S. Marasigan is a Filipino activist and researcher. He is the author of Na Kung Saan (In Which), a collection of essays, published by the University of the Philippines Press in 2018.

The Institute for Occupational Health and Safety Development (IOHSAD) is a non-stock, non-profit and independent organization engaged in assisting Filipino workers develop comprehensive and self-reliant occupational health and safety (OHS) programs. IOHSAD works with trade unions, church and community organizations in initiating programs for the health and welfare of workers and their families.