

About the Authors

E. SAN JUAN, JR., emeritus professor of Comparative Literature, University of Connecticut, was a fellow of the W.E.B. Du Bois Institute, Harvard University, and Fulbright professor of American Studies, Leuven University, Belgium. His book of criticism, Faustino Aguilar: Kapangyarihan, Kamalayan, Kasaysayan (U.S.T. Press) recently won an award from the National Book Development Board. His recent works are Maelstrom over the Killing Fields: Interventions into the Project of National-Democratic Liberation (Pantax Press/Popular Book Store, Quezon City) and Peirce's Pragmaticism: A Radical Perspective (Lexington Books, New York).

DR. MARIA ELIZA P. CRUZ is an Associate Professor of the Department of Natural Sciences of the College of Arts and Sciences of San Beda University, Manila. She is also a Professorial Lecturer at the Graduate School of the College of Education, Arts and Sciences of the National University, Graduate School of Education of the La Consolacion University Philippines and the Graduate Program of the School of Teacher Education of The National Teachers College.

She is the 2013 recipient of the Tanglaw Academic Excellence Award for the Doctor of Education- Major in Educational Leadership Program of The National Teachers College, the 2013 Training Grantee of the La Main A La Pate Foundation and the French Embassy to Manila to the 4th Inquiry- Based Science Education Training- Workshop held at Sevres, France June of 2013 and the 2016 recipient of the FEU Publication Award. In 2014, she acted as Consultant in the Text Translation (French- English-Filipino) of Marie Curie's Lessons in Physics alongside experts from SEAMEO-INNOTECH and UP-NISMED. She is the Associate Editor of the FEU- IE Graduate Research Journal from 2014-2017 and a Journal Reviewer for the Global Science and Technology Forum based in Singapore from 2016-2017. Her research interests are philosophy, science and education.

MARIEFE B. CRUZ earned her Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy degree (Magna Cum Laude) from the University of Santo Tomas - Manila. She served as the Committee Head on Academic Development of the Concilium Philosophiae, the official student organization of UST AB Philosophy students, from 2019-2021. For the past years, she has presented conference papers and delivered talks on Filipino Philosophy in conferences in UST, De La Salle University, and University of the Philippines - Diliman. Her current research interests center on Philosophical Anthropology, Translation, and Filipino Philosophy leaning towards Intellectual History and Critical Filipino Philosophy.

ARTCHIL B. FERNANDEZ is a sociology graduate student at the University of the Philippines – Diliman. His area of specialization is political sociology and his research interest is on social conflict, collective violence, social movements and civil society. A writer for a local daily, he maintains a regular weekly column at the Daily Guardian, a regional newspaper in Western Visayas based in Iloilo City. He is also a Registered Electrical Engineer.

Si PRINCESS GISSEL DIONELA-SERVO ay nakapagtapos ng Bachelor of Secondary Education major in Filipino sa Laguna College at ng Master sa Araling Filipino – Wika, Kultura, at Midya sa Pamantasang De La Salle. Sa kasalukuyan, kinukuha niya ang kanyang doktorado sa Pilosopiya sa Araling Filipino – Wika, Kultura, at Midya sa Pamantasang De La Salle. Labimpitong taon na siyang nagtuturo ng Filipino sa sekondarya sa De La Salle University Integrated School bilang full time na guro. Miyembro ng Sanggunian sa Filipino (SANGFIL).

FR. JAIME D. DEL ROSARIO, O.M.I. is an ordained priest, a member of the religious congregation Oblates of Mary Immaculate. He earned his Doctorate of Ministry (DMin) degree from the Oblate School of Theology in San Antonio, Texas, U.S.A. in 2015, the Doctorate of Philosophy in Philosophy from the University of the Philippines Diliman in 2020, currently a full-time faculty member teaching Philosophy for both tertiary and M.A. levels at Notre Dame University in Cotabato City, Theology and other general education courses, and a member of the seminary formation team of the De Mazenod Community for college-level seminarians of the OMI. Students are mixed diocesan seminarians, OMI seminarians, and lay Muslim, Christian and indigenous ones at the said university.