

About the Authors

ARTCHIL B. FERNANDEZ is a sociology graduate student at the University of the Philippines – Diliman. His area of specialization is political sociology and his research interest is on social conflict, collective violence, social movements and civil society. A writer for a local daily, he maintains a regular weekly column at the Daily Guardian, a regional newspaper in Western Visayas based in Iloilo City. He is also a Registered Electrical Engineer.

MARCK ZALDY O. CAMBA, MPR, is a faculty member of the Philosophy Department at Bicol University College of Social Sciences and Philosophy, Daraga, Albay. He received his Master in Philosophical Research from De La Salle University-Manila where he is also pursuing his Ph.D. in Philosophy. He received his Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy from Bicol University.

MARK M. GATUS, MPR, is a faculty member of the Philosophy Department at Bicol University College of Social Sciences and Philosophy, Daraga, Albay. He received his Master in Philosophical Research from De La Salle University-Manila where he is also pursuing his Ph.D. in Philosophy. He received his Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy from Bicol University.

MA. JANELLA GILLIAN C. SAYSON is a graduating student studying AB Philippine Studies major in Filipino in Mass Media and Minor in Public History and Heritage in De La Salle University (DLSU). She was a member of Dalubhasaan ng mga Umuusbong na Mag-aaral ng Araling Filipino (DANUM), and formerly a Features Writer of Ang Pahayagang Plaridel (APP) from 2018-2019. She also demonstrates experience in academic publication through her previous internship in the DLSU Publishing House. Currently, she is a Copywriter Intern under GIGIL The Ideas Company.

Her interests and expertise lie in creative writing, media, and pop culture. By working behind the scenes in worldwide and nationwide campaigns, she advocates for the potential and power of Filipino media in the advertising and media industry. For further concerns, she can be reached at ma_janella_sayson@dlsu.edu.ph.

MARIFE VILLALON is a full scholar studying AB Philippine Studies major in Filipino in Mass Media and BS Marketing Management, Minor in Data Science in De La Salle University (DLSU). She is the President of Dalubhasaan ng mga Umuusbong na Mag-aaral ng Araling Filipino (DANUM), and formerly the Vice President for External Affairs of the said organization in 2020-2021. She is also a campus journalist, having served as the IT Manager and News Editor of Ang Pahayagang Plaridel in 2019-2020.

Her academic interests lie in media studies, Internet studies, digital culture, and pop culture. She aspires to further explore the intersections of the Filipino language and Philippine Studies to non-humanities and non-social science fields such as marketing, as evidenced in her published journal article in Dalumat. She can be reached at marife_d_villalon@dlsu.edu.ph.

ANALIZA D. RESURRECCION, PH.D. is an Associate Professor of the Department of Communication, and the Research Development and Linkages Officer at De La Salle Lipa. Her main research interest centers on communication scholarship as an agent of innovation in building sustainable futures. She is one of the founding editors of Sinaya, a pioneer and flagship research journal for senior high school teachers and students of the Philippines jointly managed by De La Salle University, De La Salle Santiago Zobel, and De La Salle Lipa. She may be reached at analiza.resurreccion@dlsu.edu.ph

AXLE CHRISTIEN TUGANO. Kasalukuyang Guro ng Kasaysayan sa Division of History, University of the Philippines Los Baños, Laguna. Nagtapos ng BA History sa Polytechnic University of the Philippines (Batch Valedictorian, magna cum laude). Tinatapos ang digring MA Philippine Studies sa Asian Center, University of the Philippines Diliman. Nakapaglimbag ng mga artikulo sa mga refiradong dyornal sa Diliman Review, Likhaan: The Journal of Contemporary Philippine Literature, at Asian Studies: Journal of Critical Perspectives on Asia ng University of the Philippines Diliman; Katipunan Journal ng Ateneo de Manila University, Dalumat E-Journal ng De La Salle University, Tala Kasaysayan Journal at Hasaan Journal ng University of Santo Tomas, Saliksik Journal ng Bagong Kasaysayan, Kawing Journal ng Pambansang Samahan ng Linggwistika at Literaturang Filipino, at ilang mga pag-aaral na inilathala ng ATAGAN Tayabas at ADHIKA ng Pilipinas at National Commission for Culture and the Arts at marami pang iba. Noong 2021, natanggap niya ang karangalan bilang “Mananaysay ng Taon 2021 - Ikatlong Gantimpala” na iginawad ng Komisyon sa Wikang Filipino (KWF).

EDNA MACARAMBAN ALON is a graduate of Mindanao State University and presently taking her Doctorate Studies in Filipino from the same university. Her research interest focuses on Philippine tradition and culture.

OLIVER A. DUEZA is a graduate of Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy at Our Lady of the Angels Seminary College last 2015. He is a member of TAGPO for Values Research at the Ateneo de Manila. He is a member of PAP Philosophical Association of the Philippines. He studied Masters degree in Educational Management Instructional Leadership in PUP Graduate School. Currently the Chief for Disaster Training, Education and Public Awareness Section, under the Office of Executive Vice President in this University.

GERLIE CASPE-OGATIS is an Assistant Professor at the Polytechnic University of the Philippines-Manila teaching courses in the areas of philosophy and humanities. She graduated from University of the Philippines-Baguio with a Bachelor's Degree in Social Sciences, a double major program where she took Philosophy and Political Science. She holds a Graduate Degree in Philosophy (MA Philosophy) from the University of the Philippines-Diliman. Her research interests relate to areas of aesthetics, political philosophy, gender studies, ethics, and metaphysics.

ANNA JOSA T. ORTIZ is from Polytechnic University of the Philippines with a Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy degree. She has been fascinated with the human mind and human emotions which resulted to an undergraduate thesis about memories. She is working as a Data Analyst in an outsourcing company but continued to be captivated in her early interests. She presented her paper focusing on Martha Nussbaum's philosophy in regards with political emotions in an International Multidisciplinary Conference facilitated by Societas Ethica Philosophica Inc. last year and has been sharing her papers through seminars, but this is the first time that she will officially publish a paper in an academic journal.